Dear Mr. and Mrs. Mudgett:

The State Tax Commission has considered your letter of June 24, 1971, wherein you had explained the circumstances under which you were unable to respond to the previous notice of hearing.

The Commission has granted your request to vacate the default order entered against you, dated March 15, 1971.

Notices will be mailed to you at such time when a rehearing of the matter is scheduled.

Please advise us by return mail of your preference of location within New York State where it would be convenient to appear.

If you wish to be represented, please ask your representative to file a power of attorney with us so that we can also notify him of the scheduled hearing.
