	DETERMINATION DTA NO. 829626

Petitioner, Abdelmajid Tayb, filed a petition for redetermination of a deficiency or for refund of New York State and New York City personal income taxes under article 22 of the Tax Law and the New York City Administrative Code for the year 2016.

The Division of Taxation, by its representative, Amanda Hiller, Esq. (Mary Hurteau, Esq., of counsel), filed a motion on August 5, 2020, seeking an order dismissing the petition, or in the alternative, summary determination in the above-referenced matter pursuant to sections 3000.5, and 3000.9 (a) and (b) of the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Tax Appeals Tribunal. Petitioner, appearing pro se, did not respond to the Division of Taxation's motion. The 90-day period for issuance of this determination commenced on September 4, 2020. Based upon the motion papers, the affidavits and documents submitted therewith, and all pleadings and documents submitted in connection with this matter, Kevin R. Law, Administrative Law Judge, renders the following determination.

ISSUE

Whether petitioner filed a timely request for conciliation conference with the Bureau of Conciliation and Mediation Services following the issuance of a notice of deficiency.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On August 5, 2020, the Division of Taxation (Division) brought a motion dated August 4, 2020 for dismissal of the petition, or in the alternative, for summary determination in its favor. The subject of the Division's motion is the timeliness of petitioner's protest of a notice of deficiency, dated January 24, 2019, and bearing assessment identification number L-049239408 (notice). The notice is addressed to petitioner, Abdelmajid Tayb, as well as to Noura Harrab, at an address in Brooklyn, New York.<sup>1</sup>

2. On August 15, 2019, petitioner, via his then-representative, Yehad Abdelaziz, faxed a request for conciliation conference with the Division's Bureau of Conciliation and Mediation Services (BCMS) in protest of the notice.

3. On September 6, 2019, BCMS issued a conciliation order dismissing request (conciliation order) to petitioner. The conciliation order determined that petitioner's protest of the notice was untimely and stated, in part:

“The Tax Law requires that a request be filed within 90 days from the date of the statutory notice. Since the notice(s) was issued on January 24, 2019 but the request was not received until August 15, 2019, or in excess of 90 days, the request is late filed.”

4. Petitioner filed a timely petition with the Division of Tax Appeals in protest of the conciliation order on September 27, 2019.<sup>2</sup>

5. In support of the motion and to show proof of proper mailing of the notice, the Division submitted the following with its motion papers: (i) an affidavit, sworn to June 8, 2020,

<sup>2</sup> The petition lists Yehad Abdelaziz as petitioner's representative. Petitioner and Mr. Abdelaziz were notified by letter, dated October 29, 2019, that Mr. Abdelaziz is not qualified to represent petitioner in proceedings before administrative law judges in the Division of Tax Appeals (see 20 NYCRR 3000.2 [a] [2]).

of Deena Picard, a Data Processing Fiscal Systems Auditor 3 and the Acting Director of the Division's Management Analysis and Project Services Bureau (MAPS); (ii) a "Certified Record for – DTF-962-F-E –Not of Def Follow Up" (CMR) postmarked January 24, 2019; (iii) an affidavit, sworn to on June 12, 2020, of Susan Saccocio, a manager in the Division's mail room; (iv) a copy of the notice mailed to petitioner with the associated mailing cover sheet; (v) an affidavit, sworn to August 4, 2000, of Heidi Corina, a Legal Assistant II in the Division's Office of Counsel; and (vi) a copy of petitioner's e-filed 2017 New York State resident income tax return, form IT-201, filed on January 29, 2018, which was the last return filed with the Division before the notice was issued. The address on the return lists the same Brooklyn, New York, address as listed on the notice, the request for conciliation conference and the petition.

6. The affidavit of Deena Picard, who has been in her current position since February 2006, and Acting Director since May 2017, sets forth the Division's general practice and procedure for processing statutory notices. Ms. Picard is the Acting Director of MAPS, which is responsible for the receipt and storage of CMRs, and is familiar with the Division's Case and Resource Tracking System (CARTS) and the Division's past and present procedures as they relate to statutory notices. Statutory notices are generated from CARTS and are predated with the anticipated date of mailing. Each page of the CMR lists an initial date that is approximately 10 days in advance of the anticipated date of mailing. Following the Division's general practice, this date was manually changed on the first and last pages of the CMR in the present case to the actual mailing date of "1/24/19." In addition, as described by Ms. Picard, generally all pages of the CMR are banded together when the documents are delivered into possession of the United States Postal Service (USPS) and remain so when returned to the Division. The pages of the

7. All notices are assigned a certified control number. The certified control number of each notice is listed on a separate one-page mailing cover sheet, which also bears a bar code, the mailing address and the Departmental return address on the front, and taxpayer assistance information on the back. The certified control number is also listed on the CMR under the heading entitled “Certified No.” The CMR lists each notice in the order the notices are generated in the batch. The assessment numbers are listed under the heading “Reference No.” The names and addresses of the recipients are listed under “Name of Addressee, Street, and PO Address.”

8. The CMR in the present matter consists of 10 pages and lists 120 certified control numbers along with corresponding assessment numbers, names and addresses. Ms. Picard notes that the copy of the CMR that is attached to her affidavit has been redacted to preserve the confidentiality of information relating to taxpayers who are not involved in this proceeding. A USPS representative affixed a postmark, dated January 24, 2019, to each page of the CMR, wrote the number “120” on page 10 next to the heading “Total Pieces and Amounts,” and initialed or signed page 10.

9. Page 5 of the CMR indicates that a notice with certified control number 7104 1002 9735 4728 6598 and reference number L 049239408 was mailed to petitioner and Ms. Harrab at the Brooklyn, New York, address listed on the notice. The corresponding mailing cover sheet, attached to the Picard affidavit as part of exhibit “B,” bears this certified control number and petitioner and Ms. Harrab’s names and address as noted.

10. The affidavit of Susan Saccocio, a manager in the Division's mail room, describes the mail room's general operations and procedures. Ms. Saccocio has been in this position since 2017 and, as a result, is familiar with the practices of the mail room with regard to statutory notices. The mail room receives the notices and places them in an "Outgoing Certified Mail" area. Ms. Saccocio confirms that a mailing cover sheet precedes each notice. A staff member receives the notices and mailing cover sheets and operates a machine that puts each notice and mailing cover sheet into a windowed envelope. Staff members then weigh, seal and place postage on each envelope. The first and last pieces of mail are checked against the information on the CMR. A clerk then performs a random review of up to 30 pieces listed on the CMR, by checking those envelopes against the information listed on the CMR. A staff member then delivers the envelopes and the CMR to one of the various USPS branches located in the Albany, New York, area. A USPS employee affixes a postmark and also places his or her initials or signature on the CMR, indicating receipt by the post office. Each page of the CMR in exhibit "A" of the Picard affidavit contains a USPS postmark of January 24, 2019. On page 10, the postal service clerk wrote 120 to indicate 120 pieces of mail were received by the USPS. There is a set of initials or a signature on page 10, as well as on the other 9 pages.

11. According to the Picard and Saccocio affidavits, a copy of the notice was mailed to petitioners on January 24, 2019, as claimed.

12. The affidavit of Heidi Corina describes the Division's request to the USPS for delivery information on the January 24, 2019 notice of deficiency addressed to petitioner and Ms. Harrab. Specifically, using PS Form 3811-A, the Division requested delivery information for the article of mail bearing the certified control number addressed to petitioner as detailed in finding of fact 9. The USPS response to this request indicates the notice was delivered to petitioner and Ms. Harrab's address on January 29, 2019.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A. As noted, the Division brings a motion to dismiss the petition under section 3000.9 (a) of the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Tax Appeals Tribunal (Rules) or, in the alternative, a motion for summary determination under section 3000.9 (b). Because the petition in this matter was filed within 90 days of the conciliation order, the Division of Tax Appeals has jurisdiction over the petition and, accordingly, a motion for summary determination under section 3000.9 (b) of the Rules is the proper vehicle to consider the timeliness of petitioner's request for conciliation conference.

B. A motion for summary determination "shall be granted if, upon all the papers and proof submitted, the administrative law judge finds that it has been established sufficiently that no material and triable issue of fact is presented" (20 NYCRR 3000.9 [b] [1]). Section 3000.9 (c) of the Rules provides that a motion for summary determination is subject to the same provisions as a motion for summary judgment pursuant to CPLR 3212. "The proponent of a summary judgment motion must make a prima facie showing of entitlement to judgment as a matter of law, tendering sufficient evidence to eliminate any material issues of fact from the case" (Winegrad v New York Univ. Med. Ctr., 64 NY2d 851, 853 [1985], citing Zuckerman v City of New York, 49 NY2d 557, 562 [1980]). As summary judgment is the procedural equivalent of a trial, it should be denied if there is any doubt as to the existence of a triable issue or where the material issue of fact is "arguable" (Glick & Dolleck, Inc. v Tri-Pac Export Corp., 22 NY2d 439, 441 [1968]; Museums at Stony Brook v Vil. of Patchogue Fire Dept., 146 AD2d 572 [2d Dept 1989]). "To defeat a motion for summary judgment, the opponent must . . .

produce ‘evidentiary proof in admissible form sufficient to require a trial of material questions of fact on which he rests his claim’” (Whelan v GTE Sylvania, 182 AD2d 446, 449 [1st Dept 1992], citing Zuckerman). Petitioner did not respond to the Division’s motion. Accordingly, he is deemed to have conceded that no question of fact requiring a hearing exists (see Kuehne & Nagel, Inc. v Baiden, 36 NY2d 539 [1975]; John William Costello Assocs. v Std. Metals, 99 AD2d 227 [1st Dept 1984], lv dismissed 62 NY2d 942 [1984]).

C. A taxpayer may protest a notice of deficiency by filing a petition for a hearing with the Division of Tax Appeals within 90 days from the date of mailing of such notice (see Tax Law §§ 681 [b]; 689 [b]). Alternatively, a taxpayer may contest a notice of deficiency by filing a request for a conciliation conference with BCMS “if the time to petition for such a hearing has not elapsed” (Tax Law § 170 [3-a] [a]). It is well established that the 90-day statutory time limit for filing either a petition or a request for a conciliation conference is strictly enforced and that, accordingly, protests filed even one day late are considered untimely (see e.g. Matter of American Woodcraft, Tax Appeals Tribunal, May 15, 2003; Matter of Maro Luncheonette, Tax Appeals Tribunal, February 1, 1996). This is because, absent a timely protest, a notice of deficiency becomes a fixed and final assessment and, consequently, the Division of Tax Appeals is without jurisdiction to consider the merits of the protest (see Tax Law § 681 [b]; Matter of Lukacs, Tax Appeals Tribunal, November 8, 2007; Matter of Sak Smoke Shop, Tax Appeals Tribunal, January 6, 1989).

D. Where the timeliness of a petition or request for conciliation conference is at issue, the initial inquiry is whether the Division has carried its burden of demonstrating proper mailing by certified mail of the subject statutory notice to petitioner’s last known address (see Tax Law § 681 [a]; see also Matter of Katz, Tax Appeals Tribunal, November 14, 1991; Matter of Novar

TV & Air Conditioner Sales & Serv., Tax Appeals Tribunal, May 23, 1991). To prove the fact and the date of mailing of the subject notice, the Division must make the following showing:

“first, there must be proof of a standard procedure used by the Division for the issuance of the statutory notice by one with knowledge of the relevant procedures; and, second, there must be proof that the standard procedure was followed in the particular instance in question (Matter of United Water New York, Tax Appeals Tribunal, April 1, 2004; see Matter of Katz).”

E. The Division has offered sufficient proof to establish the mailing of the statutory notice to petitioner’s last known address on January 24, 2019. The CMR has been properly completed and therefore constitutes highly probative documentary evidence of both the date and fact of mailing (see Matter of Rakusin, Tax Appeals Tribunal, July 26, 2001). The affidavits submitted by the Division adequately describe the Division’s general mailing procedure as well as the relevant CMR and thereby establish that the general mailing procedure was followed in this case (see Matter of DeWeese, Tax Appeals Tribunal, June 20, 2002). Further, the address on the mailing cover sheet and on the CMR conform with the address listed on petitioner’s New York State income tax return for the year 2017, which satisfies the “last known address” requirement in Tax Law § 681 (a). In addition, the affidavit of Heidi Corina indicates that the notice was in fact delivered on January 29, 2019.

F. It is concluded that the notice was properly mailed to petitioner on January 24, 2019, and the statutory 90-day time limit to file either a request for conciliation conference with BCMS or a petition with the Division of Tax Appeals commenced on that date (see Tax Law §§ 170 [3-a] [a]; 681 [b]; 689 [b]). Petitioner’s request was filed on August 15, 2019. This date falls after the 90-day period of limitations for the filing of such a request and was properly dismissed by the September 6, 2019 order issued by BCMS. Petitioner has offered no claim or evidence to meet his burden to prove that any timely protest was filed before the 90-day period of limitations for challenging the notice expired.

G. The Division of Taxation's motion is granted, the petition of Abdelmajid Tayb is denied and the September 6, 2019 conciliation order dismissing petitioner's request is sustained.
