

STATE OF NEW YORK

DIVISION OF TAX APPEALS

---

In the Matter of the Petition	:
of	:
JOSE M. SANTIAGO	:	DETERMINATION DISMISSING PETITION
for Redetermination of a Deficiency or for Refund of New York State Personal Income Tax under Article 22 of the Tax Law for the Year 2021.	:	DTA NO. 831229

---

Pursuant to 20 NYCRR 3000.3 (a), all proceedings in the Division of Tax Appeals must be commenced by the filing of a petition. Pursuant to 20 NYCRR 3000.3 (b), the form of the petition sets forth the required information that must be included in the petition. Petitioner is required to sign the petition (see 20 NYCRR 3000.3 [b] [7]) and to provide a copy of the statutory notice being protested (see 20 NYCRR 3000.3 [b] [8]).

On April 10, 2023, the Division of Tax Appeals made a written request to petitioner to sign the petition and to provide a copy of the statutory notice. To date, petitioner has not provided any of the requested information.

Therefore, with no response received from petitioner, pursuant to 20 NYCRR 3000.3 (d) (2),

IT IS ORDERED, on the motion of the supervising administrative law judge, that the petition be, and is hereby, dismissed with prejudice as of this date.

DATED: Albany, New York
June 27, 2024

/s/ Donna M. Gardiner
SUPERVISING ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE